

Tiana

How to Use the Projector

- Pick a clear space on a light-colored wall or ceiling three to five feet away.
- If you want to project the biggest possible image onto your wall, you'll have the best results when holding the projector five feet from the wall or ceiling.
- This story uses the green disks. Use Disk 1 to begin. Change to Disk 2 or Disk 3 when indicated in the story.
- Slide the picture disk into the top of the projector as shown.
- Turn the disk to the right as you read through the story. The numbers next to the text correspond to the numbers on the projected images. Use the focusing ring to focus the pictures.

THE PRINCESS AND THE FROG

Movie Theater Storybook
& Movie Projector[®]

Adapted by Judy Katschke

Illustrated by Disney Storybook Artists

Reader's Digest
Children's Books[®]

Pleasantville, New York • Montréal, Québec • Bath, United Kingdom

The Princess and the Frog

*N*ot too long ago, in New Orleans, there lived two girls named Tiana and Charlotte. One night, the friends listened as Tiana's mother read them a bedtime story, The Frog Prince. It was about a prince who was turned into a frog. Only a kiss from a princess could break the spell!

DISK I

I

Charlotte would kiss a hundred frogs if it meant becoming a princess. But not Tiana! She dreamed of having her own restaurant someday. As soon as Tiana was old enough, she became a waitress at Duke's Diner.

Meanwhile, a handsome man named Prince Naveen had arrived in New Orleans for Mardi Gras, a big celebration. He and his valet, Lawrence, were going to attend a masquerade ball—at Charlotte's home. Charlotte would finally meet her prince!

Naveen danced down Bourbon Street with Lawrence stumbling behind. That's when a mysterious man stepped out of the shadows. His name was Dr. Facilier and he promised to make their dreams come true. He held up a magic charm that looked like a small mask.

2

Then Facilier put the charm around Lawrence's neck. The voodoo spell made the valet transform into Prince Naveen. And it changed Prince Naveen too—into a frog!

At the ball, Tiana stood on a balcony in one of Charlotte's princess costumes and thought about her restaurant. After wishing hard, Tiana's eyes popped open. But all she saw was a frog. It was Naveen! Naveen urged Tiana to kiss him. If a princess kissed the frog he would turn back into a prince—just like in the story.

But after the kiss, Tiana turned into a frog too! Both frogs tumbled out the window and into the party below.

Tiana and Naveen grabbed onto a bunch of balloons that swept them up and toward the bayou. As they floated above the bayou, Tiana told Naveen that she wasn't a princess, but a waitress.

4 The balloons popped and Tiana and Naveen fell into the water. The next day, Tiana built a boat and the frogs met a trumpet-playing alligator named Louis! Louis thought that Mama Odie—the old blind lady who lived in the deepest, darkest part of the bayou—would know how to break the spell.

As Tiana, Naveen, and Louis drifted down the river, they became lost. Luckily, they met Ray, a Cajun firefly. Ray knew his way around the bayou and promised to take them to Mama Odie. As the four friends drifted toward Mama Odie's they talked about love. Tiana and Naveen shared a few secret glances—all this talk about love had them thinking about their feelings for each other.

But then suddenly—SNAP!—a giant fishing net dropped over Naveen and snatched him up! Tiana, Louis, and Ray worked together to free their friend from the frog hunters. Tiana and Naveen hopped back and forth across the trappers' boat. The frogs were too quick for the hunters, and the men clubbed each other.

Everyone was getting hungry, so Tiana decided to cook something for the group. She gathered some mushrooms from the riverbank and taught Naveen how to slice them into tiny pieces. Naveen was new to this—he'd never had to work at anything!

But as he chopped the mushrooms, he was proud to be able to help Tiana. And Tiana was happy to see how willing Naveen was to learn something new.

After a hearty dinner, the friends were full. Everyone was impressed by Tiana's cooking. "That was magnificent!" Naveen said. "You truly have a gift!"

While Louis played a tune on his trumpet, Naveen and Tiana danced on a lily pad. Tiana closed her eyes as Naveen led her in the dance. Naveen leaned in for a kiss, but Tiana reluctantly pulled back. She knew how much Charlotte wanted to marry Naveen and become a princess. Tiana didn't want to think about her own feelings for Naveen. Love was in the air... but so was danger!

Dark shadows rose over the bayou and grabbed hold of Naveen. Tiana grabbed Naveen's arm, but her strength was no match for their evil. Even Louis wasn't strong enough to free Naveen from the determined shadows.

Things looked hopeless—until a blinding flash of light destroyed the shadows one by one! It was Mama Odie!

7

Mama Odie led the friends inside her home. She told Naveen that he had until midnight to kiss Charlotte, who would be dressed as a princess for Mardi Gras. Once Naveen had kissed a princess, he and Tiana would become human again.

Midnight didn't give them much time so the friends jumped aboard a boat heading down the river. Meanwhile, Naveen had realized that he was in love with Tiana. But soon the shadows came back for Naveen and took him to Dr. Facilier. The power of the charm had worn off, and Lawrence was himself again.

Using the charm, Facilier turned Lawrence back into Prince Naveen. Then Facilier tossed the frog Naveen into a cage and locked it.

The riverboat docked but Tiana couldn't find Naveen. She knew just where to look for him—on Charlotte's float. Her friend would be dressed as a princess, all ready to give a kiss to a frog!

But when Tiana saw the float, she gasped. Standing on top of a wedding cake were Charlotte and Naveen, who was back to being a prince! But Tiana didn't know that she was seeing Lawrence. Sadly, she hopped away into a nearby cemetery.

Ray flew close to the float and freed Naveen from the cage. Naveen hopped out and onto Lawrence's back. Lawrence and Naveen fought over the charm. The frog tossed the charm into the air and Ray caught it. He headed to the cemetery.

Inside the cemetery, Ray quickly found Tiana and told her the truth about Naveen. Then he tossed the charm to Tiana and told her to run. Tiana hopped away as fast as she could. But she froze when she reached the gate. It was Facilier!

DISK 3

9

“Back off or I’ll break this thing into a million pieces!” Tiana shouted as she held up the charm.

Facilier smiled and blew some powder into the air. A spell was cast, and Tiana was in her dream restaurant, as a human!

Facilier told Tiana that he would give her a restaurant in exchange for the charm. But Naveen would forever be a frog! Tiana hurled the charm to the ground, smashing it to tiny bits. She became a frog again. And Facilier's evil shadows swallowed him up!

Tiana hopped off to find Naveen and Charlotte. Tiana found them just as Naveen was promising to marry Charlotte and make her a princess, even though he and Tiana were in love. But there was one condition—Charlotte had to give Tiana money for her restaurant. Tiana begged Naveen not to marry Charlotte, and once Charlotte saw that the two frogs were in love, she kissed Naveen again and again with no conditions. But because it was after midnight, he was still a frog! “I’m so sorry,” Charlotte sighed.

II

Naveen wasn’t. Neither was Tiana. They were sad about still being frogs. But they were in love.

The next morning in the bayou, Tiana and Naveen happily exchanged wedding vows. As their lips met—POOF—a flurry of magic dust swirled around and around the bride and groom.

12

When the magic dust cleared, Naveen and Tiana were no longer frogs. They were human again! As soon as Prince Naveen kissed Tiana, she became a princess. Her kiss broke the spell.

Soon a fancy restaurant serving food cooked by Princess Tiana stood in New Orleans. Tiana's lifelong dream had finally come true!

BATTERY INFORMATION

To remove or insert replaceable batteries, remove the safety screw from battery compartment door. Lift and remove door. Take out and safely dispose of old batteries. Follow polarity diagram inside battery compartment to insert three new batteries of any of the following types: AG13 or equivalent. Alkaline batteries are recommended. Put battery compartment door back and secure safety screw. Do not use excess force or an improper type or size screwdriver.

CAUTION

To ensure proper safety and operation, battery replacement must always be done by an adult. Never let a child use this product unless battery door is secure. Batteries are small objects and could be ingested. Keep all batteries away from small children and immediately dispose of any used batteries safely. Projector is not a viewer. Do not look into the lens when light is on.

GENERAL SAFETY AND CARE

- Non-rechargeable batteries are not to be recharged.
- Different types of batteries or new and used batteries are not to be mixed.
- Batteries are to be inserted with the correct polarity.
- Exhausted batteries are to be removed from the toy.
- The supply terminals are not to be short-circuited.
- Do not mix old and new batteries.
- Do not mix alkaline, standard (carbon-zinc), or rechargeable (nickel-cadmium) batteries.
- Prevent the book and unit from getting wet and avoid exposure to excessively hot or cold temperatures.
- Rechargeable batteries are only to be charged under adult supervision.
- Rechargeable batteries are to be removed from the toy before being charged.

Reader's Digest

Children's Books®

Copyright ©2010 Disney Enterprises, Inc.
All Rights Reserved. The movie THE PRINCESS AND
THE FROG Copyright ©2009 Disney, story inspired in part by the book THE FROG PRINCESS by E.D. Baker
Copyright ©2002, published by Bloomsbury Publishing, Inc.
Published by Reader's Digest Children's Books
Reader's Digest Road, Pleasantville, NY U.S.A. 10570-7000 and Reader's Digest Children's Publishing Limited,
The Ice House, 124-126 Walcot Street, Bath UK BA1 5BG
All rights reserved. Reader's Digest Children's Books, Reader's Digest, and Movie Theater Storybook & Movie Projector
are all registered trademarks of The Reader's Digest Association, Inc.
Manufactured in China.
Conforms to ASTM F963
10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 1
SV/07/10

9780794421359

11/29/2017 12:07-3

22